

OABP Listserv “Etiquette”

- Some Basic Guidelines for Participation

Purpose of the OABP Listserv: To provide a useful and positive means for members to communicate with one another, ask questions, receive responses and advice, and to provide support for one another.

- Be sure to include a descriptive subject line when writing your email. Emails received with no subject line may likely be perceived as spam.
- The discussions on the list are meant to stimulate conversation. Please keep discussion to topics of Bovine interest.
- If discussing a case, maintain client confidentiality.
- Postings are confidential. Do not C.C. or B.C.C. a person who is not a member of the listserv. Do not forward an email to anyone outside the listserv without the permission of the original sender.
- Please include your name and location and or clinic at the end of the message to provide geographic context.
- Where appropriate, request that others respond privately. Provide your email address. When responding privately, remember to cut and paste the sender’s email address. Simply hitting the “Reply” button sends your response to the entire list.
- Don’t post advertisements for seminars, training, etc. Advertising opportunities are available. Please contact the listserv manager for more details.
- Do not send administrative messages, such as “remove me from the list”. Instead, contact the listserv manager.
- All disparaging, defamatory, abusive, profane, threatening, offensive, or illegal comments are strictly prohibited. OABP has the right to remove members if necessary.
