OABP Veterinary Service Award Nomination Form

The OABP Veterinary Service Award is meant to honour a veterinarian who has demonstrated outstanding service and dedication to the Ontario bovine industry. This award will be granted to no more than one veterinarian in a given year.

The veterinarian will be nominated by a current member of the OABP by forwarding a letter of recommendation describing the attributes that make the nominee a suitable candidate for this award. Two additional letters of support from members of the bovine industry are required for the nomination to be considered.

The award recipient will become a lifetime member of the Ontario Association of Bovine Practitioners.

The award will be presented at the time of the OABP Annual General Meeting.
